

TEACHER'S PROFILE

- Name: Daniel Enseñat
- Date of birth: 28/10/1983
- Nationality: Spanish
- Teaching level: high (senior teacher)
- Level of demand: high/ demanding
- Accent: clear, standard Spanish from Madrid.
- Level of comprehension: very clear
- Teaching experience: non-stop since 2013
- Knowledge of the Spanish grammar: extremely high
- Conversational level: enjoyable, able to speak of any topic.
- Mentality: tolerant
- International experience: yes
- Mother tongue: Spanish
- Other languages: English as a second mother tongue
- Hobbies: reading travelling, studying foreign languages, sports
-

Education

- UCL London, PhD of Language Pathways, Spanish and Latin American Studies (2004 -2008) level obtained: First Class Honours.
- Postgraduate Certificate in Education by University of Málaga (2008 -2009) level obtained: Excellent.
- Postgraduate Certificate in Teaching Spanish as a foreign Language (2009) organised by Instituto Cervantes.

Working Experience

Since 2013, Daniel has worked non-stop as a teacher of Spanish ELE (Spanish as a Second Language) combining this activity with other educational roles.

Main tasks and responsibilities:

- Teacher of intensive Spanish courses at all levels, especially beginners and pre-intermediate.
- Trainer for the DELE and SIELE exam at all levels.
- Teacher in Methodology courses of teaching Spanish as a second language.

Teacher's profile

Daniel is a fun-friendly teacher who always finds the way to meet the student's needs and level. He is punctual and loves teaching Spanish in an enjoyable way, but always seeking results.

After over 10 years of experience, she is fully convinced that sense of humour and a recreational approach are essential to learn a second language.

Natural conversation, as real Spaniards speak, is part of Daniel's method. He loves teaching grammar in a fun way!